

SHIFT ASIA LEARNING SESSION 4.0

DISMANTLING THE SYSTEM: SHIFTING POWER FROM "REFORM" TO A LOCALIZATION (R)EVOLUTION

This SHIFT Asia Learning Session 4.0 marks a decade since the launch of the Grand Bargain, signaling a transition from incremental reform to a localization (R)evolution. By moving beyond "business as usual," this session showcases how feminist and women-led initiatives from Bangladesh and Indonesia are dismantling systemic gatekeeping to build a locally owned, gender-transformative humanitarian system across Asia

Hannah Cooper
Oxfam International

Oxfam report "The Grand Bargain 10 Years On"

Shahnaz Sumi
Bangladesh Women Humanitarian
Platform (BWHP)

*Frontline Reality &
Feminist Leadership*

Dr. Avianto Amri
Indonesian Humanitarian
Coordination Platform (IHCP)

The Coordination Reset

DAY/TIME

Day/Date
Wednesday, 1 April 26

Time

13:00–15:00 Dhaka Time (UTC+6)
13:30–15:30 Naypyidaw Time (UTC+6:30)
14:00–16:00 Jakarta Time (UTC+7)
15:00–17:00 Manila Time (UTC+8)

PLACE AND REGISTRATION

<https://bit.ly/SHIFTASIA04>

SCAN HERE

Bangladesh and Indonesia Language
Interpreters are provided

SHIFT ASIA LEARNING SESSION 4.0

DISMANTLING THE SYSTEM: SHIFTING POWER FROM "REFORM" TO A LOCALIZATION (RE)EVOLUTION

Hannah Cooper
Oxfam International

Oxfam report "The Grand Bargain 10 Years On"

Hannah Cooper is Policy and Research Coordinator with Oxfam International's Rights in Crisis team, based in Geneva, Switzerland. Her focus is on forced displacement and refugee leadership; she also currently leads Oxfam's policy work around local humanitarian leadership. Hannah has more than a decade of experience working on issues related to humanitarian action, protection of civilians, and human mobility. Her work focuses on influencing policies at national, regional, and global levels to ensure that they better respond to the needs and rights of people on the move and those affected by humanitarian crises. She has held roles across a number of Oxfam's country offices, including in Burkina Faso, Central African Republic, DR Congo, OPT and Yemen, and has held roles with the Norwegian Refugee Council, Refugee Action, the International Detention Coalition, and the United Nations.

Shahnaz Sumi is a women and human rights activist, development and peace practitioner in Bangladesh. Since 1995 professional work in the area of Gender Justice and human Rights. She is Contributing to feminist and social movement in Bangladesh. She is the Director of BNPS and Bangladesh Nari Progati Sangha (BNPS) is the member organization of Bangladesh Women's Humanitarian Platform (BWHP), She represents BWHP from her organization. Aside BWHP, BNPS is actively involved with different national and regional networks and forums such as Gender in Humanitarian Action Working Group (GiHA WG), PSEA Network, GBV sub-sector are some of them.

Shahnaz Sumi
Bangladesh Women Humanitarian
Platform (BWHP)

*Frontline Reality &
Feminist Leadership*

Avianto Amri is an expert on humanitarian response and Disaster Risk Reduction (DRR), particularly with at-risk groups such as children and women. He has a PhD from Macquarie University in Australia developing innovative tools in enabling children to influence their families by strengthening household preparedness. He is the co-founder and CEO of PREDIKT, a social enterprise that creates innovative education materials for disaster preparedness. He has an extensive experience in many countries across Asia and the Pacific. He is the Chairperson of the Indonesian Disaster Management Society (MPBI), and the Co-Chair of the newly established CSO-led Indonesian Humanitarian Coordination Platform (IHCP). He provides regular technical support as consultants and team leader in conducting academic research, evaluations, and capacity building activities for IFRC, ICVA, UN agencies, ASEAN, as well as International and Local CSOs. Dr. Amri is the Sphere Country Focal Point for Indonesia, humanitarian standards that utilised by humanitarian organisations globally, and he is based in Jakarta, Indonesia

Dr. Avianto Amri
Indonesian Humanitarian
Coordination Platform (IHCP)

The Coordination Reset